

वी.एस.पी
VSP

RASHTRIYA ISPAT NIGAM LIMITED
VISAKHAPATNAM STEEL PLANT
RAW MATERIAL HANDLING PLANT
ELECTRICAL GENERAL SHIFT REPORT

Date: 29/09/2026

Area: OHP

| Equipment                                  | Job                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Misc.                                      | Hvmcc-1 cable trench de watering is done. Spare motor for WBR-4 LT motor is found, coupling to be fixed. om-12,lc-8,lc-4 water levels checked and de watering is done. |
| co-9a ,56 gallery ; co-41a stair case area | lighting improved                                                                                                                                                      |
| vf-10 motor tripped                        | Observed heavy vibration and tripping due to high counter weight angle, reduced angle % from 90 to 60 and checked. Restored both motors in use.                        |
| brc-4 on co-8a                             | Oil cooler Fan Feeder Healthy was bypassed at IO rack. removed bypass and checked interlock                                                                            |
| co-32                                      | pullchord cable was damaged during JCB cleaning, rejoin done and restored in circuit.                                                                                  |
| tt-4 pcrd cable                            | tt-1 removed spare cable is used for full length in tt-4 and slip ring maintenance is done.                                                                            |
| wobr-3 on co-25 pcrd motor                 | motor was having water accumulated inside, cleaned, dried and restored pcrd operations.                                                                                |